Wladimir Perekhly, born 5 Jan 1920 in Prague, Czech Republic, married journalist, student of law (formerly only living in Munich.
Registration: 25/9 1950 1 (op 1951) AP/Germany

Perekhly Wladimir lived in Prague until 1946. Coming from London he moved to Munich on 10/10/1947
He was registered at the registration office under the following addresses:
from 13 Dec 1947: Gassenstr. 6/II from 22 Apr 1950, Neufahrer Str. 12/0 from 26 Dec 1951: Gassenstr. 2/0

He made applications at the police presidium of Munich for official certificates of good conduct for the purpose of presenting them with his application for the attainment of exit permits:
on 12 Sep 1949 for the purpose of participating in the conference of the moral movement in Canton Schays on 25 May 1950 for a visitor's tour to England.

The "Sueddeutsche Zeitung" wrote in No 15, of 17 Jan 1950 an article, headlined
"A Liberation Army on the paper" in which we read, among others
"Wladimir PEREKHLY, representative of the Czech national group in Germany, is a Czech. The goal which he wants to achieve in harmony with the leader of the exile Czechs, general PRCHALA is the fight of all Czech national groups for a middle European federation on a Christian basis. That he wants to reach first is the clear differentiation between national Czechs and Czech Slovakians (followers of Benesch) which ought to be adapted by the German population."

The Land agency for the protection of the Constitution in Munich found out that PEREKHLY was a member of the Czech national committee under general PRCHALA in London until Aug 1951. Because of this the committee of the Land agency divided the national committee and founded the organization of Czech nationalists in Munich, Gassenstr. 2, on 13 Sep 1951.
He is the chairman of this organization.

this organization strives for the foundation of an independent Czechoslovakia within its old borders and under the Czech sovereignty.
Their attitude is anti-German.
